Who should enroll?

The employee enrolling must have the legal authority to bind your company/organization to the Apple Developer Program legal agreements. This can include your company's founder/co-founder, executive team member or senior project lead.

If you develop apps to be distributed on the App Store for a company other than your own, your client's company must enroll. They can add you to their team to access program resources.

- ☐ Yes, I am the owner/founder and have the legal authority to sign and bind my company to Apple Developer Program legal agreements and contracts.
